SUBJECT: CODEL MURPHY

REF : Handbook for Congressional Travel, Section 333

Mr. George Murphy, Staff Member, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy

Mr. Murphy arrived on the morning of July 26, accompanied by a group of Defense Department personnel. Mr. Garland, Embassy Control Officer, met Mr. Murphy, provided 19FT funds, and accompanied him to his hotel. The Defense Department group was met by Colonel Goldenberg, U.S.A.F., Special Weapons Section, Camp des Loges.

On July 27, Mr. Murphy and the Defense Department personnel attended a meeting of a classified nature at Camp des Loges.

The entire group left Paris July 28 by military aircraft to fulfill the schedule contained in our telegram 435 of July 26. On Thursday, August 1, the group returned to Paris; Mr. Garland was present at Orly MATS to meet Mr. Murphy and take him to his hotel.

On Friday, August 2, after further discussions at Camp des Loges, Mr. Murphy met with Dr. Harold Agnew, Scientific Liaison, at SHAPE.

Mr. Murphy left for Washington on Saturday, August 3.

The CODEL did not wish an Embassy car at his disposal, and, except for his arrivals and departures, when an Embassy vehicle was used, Mr. Murphy rode with the Defense Department group in military vehicles. During conversation with Mr. Garland, Mr. Murphy stated that he foresaw little or no opposition in the Joint Committee to the test-ban treaty.
